

THE OCEAN HOUSE RETAINS COVETED FIVE DIAMOND RATING

Ocean House Recognized as One of North America's Most Luxurious Hotels by AAA

WATCH HILL, RI (October 25, 2013) – The Ocean House has retained its Five Diamond rating by AAA, ranking the resort as a premier establishment esteemed by the AAA professional inspectors, the hospitality industry and more than 54 million AAA/CAA members

“We are extremely proud to have received this recognition yet again,” said Daniel A. Hostettler, President and Group Managing Director of Ocean House Management, LLC. “2013 has been an extremely successful year for the Ocean House and our current list of awards and accolades is truly remarkable – I am so pleased that our Five Diamond rating continues to be one of those extraordinary accomplishments.”

While more than 30,000 properties are reviewed by AAA each year, less than one-half of one percent make the AAA Five Diamond list.

About the Ocean House

The Ocean House, one of New England's last grand hotels, re-opened its doors in June 2010 after a $140 million rebuild and restoration. The 136-year-old property, originally built just after the Civil War, is perched high on the bluffs in Watch Hill, Rhode Island. Guests enjoy views of the Atlantic Ocean, Montauk and Block Island from the resort's 49 guestrooms and 15 signature suites. Farm-to-table casual and fine dining, the 12,000-square-foot OH! Spa and more than 10,000 square feet of event space make the Ocean House ideal for mid-week business retreats, close-to-home family vacations, weekend luxury escapes and destination weddings.
