satin mahogany finish offer ample and elegant accommodations for 4-6 guests plus crew. Whether anchored in the harbor or bay or cruising in the open ocean, Dandy's shallow draft allows for exploration to remote and secluded destinations, making your cruise unique and unforgettable.

THE TRIM AGAIN
WATCH HILL, RHODE ISLAND

CLASSIC WOODEN CATBOAT
ACCOMMODATES 4 ADULTS AND 2 CHILDREN

Trim Again is a 24-foot classic 1950s catboat, designed by the renowned Eldredge-McInnis of Boston. Step back in time to the peak of Watch Hill's Victorian hotel and cottage colony era of catboat tours sailing on the Bay, Fishers Island Sound, Pawcatuck River and Atlantic Ocean.

Built for a wealthy coffee merchant, no expense was spared in her construction, materials and maintenance. A founding catboat of the Catboat Association, Trim Again has been described as the ultimate catboat cruising yacht. With an overall length of 24 feet and beam of 11 feet, 3 inches, her design followed the lines of a Daniel Crosby Cat (possibly the first Trim) found in Wellfleet, Massachusetts—modified to give nearly full headroom in the cabin.

In the cabin are an enclosed head, a wardrobe, two bunks that pull out to make sleeping room for four, and a starboard side galley with stainless steel built-in equipment (a gift to original owner from Howard Johnson). Trim Again's decks, cockpit and cabins are finished in teak with interior trim of teak and beautiful mahogany.

With her large cockpit, Trim Again is ideal for 4-6 guests for 2-3 hour or full-day sails, and sunset cocktail and dinner cruises. Proceeds from all Trim Again charters benefit the Mystic Seaport Museum.
