

FOOD & WINE

8 Excellent U.S. Hotels for Wine Lovers

8 of 8

Ocean House

Watch Hill, RI

Yachting, croquet and squash are just a few of the outdoor activities enjoyed at this exquisite oceanfront resort known for its compelling wine cellar and top-notch culinary education program. At the monthly "Farm + Vine" series, talented New England chefs whip up hors d'oeuvres and a three-course dinner with ingredients sourced from local farms, not to mention wines paired by the Ocean House's sommelier. The 1868-era hotel features 49 rooms and 22 private villas with updated amenities following a multimillion-dollar renovation, making it a glamorous choice for a wine-filled Rhode Island getaway. When not studying up local wines or enjoying a cooking class at the onsite Center for Wine and Culinary Arts, guests can simply take in fresh sea breezes or solve handcrafted wooden puzzles by a roaring fire.

Enter to win an amazing, all-inclusive stay at the Frank Gehry designed Marqués de Riscal hotel and spa in Elciego, Spain.

CLICK TO ENTER NOW

WINE ENTHUSIAST

TOP READS

1

6 Hot Toddy Cocktails

2

Wine for Beginners

