Ocean House in Watch Hill, R.I., the tiny village in Westerly where Taylor Swift maintains a mansion, earned a Forbes

Travel Guide 15-Star rating, with the hotel, its OH! Spa and Seasons restaurant each snagging a Five-Star rating that makes up the total. As such, Ocean House is the only property to become a triple Five-Star hotel in 2015, making it the 10th hotel in the world, and one of five in the U.S., to receive the designation. Others include the Broadmoor in Colorado and Grand Del Mar in California.

OH! Spa earned its Five-Star designation in 2012, followed by the resort earning its own Five Stars in 2013. Seasons restaurant joined the list of 55 Five-Star restaurants worldwide for the first time this year.

Ocean House is playing up the triple-five rating with a deal: Through April, it offers a package starting at $555 that includes deluxe king or terrace king accommodations, dinner for two at Seasons, and $50 resort credit, to be used at OH! Spa, food and beverage, or retail.
