

8 enticing luxury resorts

Written by: Alice P. Drake

Punxsutawney Phil has not seen his shadow and the promise of early spring is now on everyone's mind. With warmer weather (hopefully) in the foreseeable future, now seems like the perfect time to start planning that long-awaited vacation. Whether you're ready to pack up and hit the road tomorrow, or just planning out the details, boy, do we have some gorgeous travel ideas for you. We have assembled a list of some of the best resorts and spas from all four corners of the U.S. Your toughest decision might be whether to pack the sunscreen or the snowshoes!

Ocean House

Watch Hill, Rhode Island

Perched high on the bluffs of Watch Hill, the Ocean House is an iconic New England seaside resort, and the first and only AAA Five Diamond and “Forbes” Five-Star hotel in the state. The Ocean House was meticulously reconstructed to pay tribute to its storied past and offer exceptional personal experiences for guests, members and residents.

Highlights:

- Activities include cooking classes, wine tastings, croquet clinics, art classes, cultural events and fitness classes
- OH! Spa is the only “Forbes” Five-Star spa in Rhode Island
- Yachting aboard classic motor and sailing yachts
- Well-appointed guest rooms, suites, villas and cottages
- Beach cabanas
- Golf, croquet, tennis
- Fishing charters
- Surf and paddle
- Bike tours
- Fine dining options, casual bistro restaurants, and beach fare
