UNDER PATAGONIA'S SPELL

THE WOW ISSUE

YVES SAINT LAURENT'S MARRAKECH > THE NEW AMERICAN WEST
TIMELESS JORDAN > THE JOY OF TRANSATLANTIC CRUISING

Fun for grown-ups, too: Domaine de Manville's 18-hole golf course.

Playtime in Provence

Immerse your enfants in French culture at the 39-room Domaine de Manville. The children's club – located in and around a pair of converted Gypsy caravans – at the 250-acre farm turned resort in Provence offers games of pétanque (lawn bowling), French and American movie screenings, and cooking classes, as well as some prime hide-and-seek spots in its olive groves. Parents can join in on guided hikes to the nearby Camargue Biosphere Reserve, or on a horseback trek along the Mediterranean coast.

Doubles from $300, including breakfast daily and a round of golf for $100 dining credit.

A COASTAL CANVAS

In addition to admiring the picturesque Atlantic views at Rhode Island's Ocean House, guests can now learn how to paint them. The hotel recently hired master watercolor artist Jeanne Potter to serve as resident curator and director of art education. She'll oversee rotating gallery shows in the 67-room hotel's lobby, launch an artists-in-residence program, organize art lectures and hands-on art classes for guests, and lead guided tours of the hotel's collection. New England-inspired artwork fills the 1868 Victorian estate's public and private spaces, including all 49 of its recently renovated rooms. Doubles from $655, including breakfast daily and a $100 resort credit.

Sitting room by the sea: A renovated Ocean House suite.

Order up on the Riviera Maya.

TACO TIME: At the 130-room Rosewood Mayakoba on Mexico's Riviera Maya, there's no need to leave the beach for lunch. The new Aquí Me Quedo taco truck opens for business daily, serving ceviche, tostadas, margaritas, and, yes, plenty of tacos.

Doubles from $590, including breakfast daily and a $100 resort credit.
