

We are fortunate to celebrate with family and friends. GETTY

Lea Lane Contributor
Travel
Award-winning travel writer/photographer/podcaster, 100-plus countries

Oct 30, 2021, 11:05am EDT | 306 views

Reserve Now For A Thanksgiving Day Mini-Cruise, Or A Holiday Getaway

You probably feel more comfortable than you did last year, reuniting with family and friends. Halloween may be at hand, but make plans and reservations now to make this Thanksgiving a special celebration.

To have more time to enjoy with loved ones, consider getting together outside your home for a traditional meal you don't have to prepare ahead and clean up after. Restaurants and lodgings around the country will be offering special deals and meals, and some areas even offer cruises for a few hours with classic Thanksgiving meals.

You can celebrate with crackling fireplaces, chef-prepared cuisine, and a few nights away with loved ones, enjoying day trips and family outings, or just hanging out together, pampered in a cozy room or suite.

But last-minute reservations may not work, so book ahead. Here are a few deluxe suggestions around the U.S. (And in any case, wherever we celebrate, we can be thankful that this Thanksgiving things seem to be getting better.)

Ocean House - Watch Hill, Rhode Island

At COAST in Ocean House, guests will enjoy traditional Thanksgiving fixings with a five-star twist. Also available is a spectacular Thanksgiving buffet in the hotel's ballrooms featuring traditional favorites.

For a unique Thanksgiving meal, head over to Preserve Sporting Club & Residences. The Maker's Mark Hobbit Houses offers an upscale menu and fine bourbon pairings, on preservation land.