SPECIAL EVENTS THIS MONTH

The Arts

June 3rd: Changing Silhouettes of Fashion: Corsets, Crinolines, and Bustles – Oh My! Step into the elegant Seaside Ballroom at Ocean House for an illuminating lecture by Rebecca Kelly, Executive Director and Curator of the South County Museum. In this engaging presentation, Rebecca explores how fashion—particularly the shifting silhouettes of the 18th, 19th, and early 20th centuries—served as a reflection of society’s changing social, political, and cultural values. This illustrated lecture provides a fascinating look at how fashion and the body intersect, offering a deeper understanding of the garments that redefined femininity and masculinity across the centuries. $35/guest (plus taxes and fees), reservations are required.

June 6th: Artisan in Residence: Watercolor Workshop: Join J. Susan Cole Stone, a talented watercolor artist, for an inspiring and hands-on experience as she shares her passion for painting with watercolors. In this exclusive session, you’ll receive personalized instruction and expert guidance, allowing you to create your very own masterpiece. With J. Susan’s professional tips and techniques, you’ll explore the beauty and versatility of watercolor while honing your skills in a supportive and creative environment.

Reservations are required. There is a $5.00 fee for valet parking for non-hotel guests. Don’t miss this opportunity to learn from a true artist in residence and take home your very own watercolor creation. $65/person (ages 8 and up)

June 22nd: Epoxy Resin Cutting Board Workshop: Join us for a creative and inspiring hands-on workshop led by Resident Curator & Director of Art Education, Lisa Szaro. In this unique experience, you’ll design and craft your own ocean-inspired wood cutting board using epoxy resin techniques. Begin by painting soothing ocean waves onto a wooden board, then learn how to apply epoxy resin and use a heat gun to create a stunning, realistic wave effect. With guided instruction and hands-on assistance, you’ll bring the beauty of the sea to life in a functional and artistic way. Sip on wine and nibble on cookies as you relax and enjoy this engaging workshop. Whether you’re a seasoned artist or a beginner, this event is perfect for anyone looking to explore their creative side and leave with a beautiful, handcrafted cutting board.

June 27th: American Songbook with Marion Markham: Immerse yourself in an unforgettable evening of cabaret classics, drama, music, and charm with renowned performer Marion Markham. Let her captivating voice and dynamic presence transport you through a rich repertoire of timeless standards, soulful blues, sultry jazz, and vibrant Latin rhythms—all sprinkled with a touch of playful comedy. Accompanied by a stellar musical ensemble, Marion delivers a performance that is as enchanting as it is exhilarating. Your experience includes one complimentary alcoholic beverage, with a cash bar available for additional drinks. $38/person (plus tax& service charge).
